Four receive jail terms for organising illegal migrations

Siu Beng and Siu Be at the court.

The people's court of Chu Se district of Central Highlands Gia Lai province on January 25 sentenced four defendants, who were charged with "organising illegal migrations" with jail terms ranging from three years and a half to six years and a half, local sources report.

The defendants include Siu Beng and Siu Be, residents of Ia H'Ru commune, who were sentenced to six years and a half and three years and a half in prison respectively, and H'Naoch and K'Pa Hling, residents of Ia Bang commune of Chu Se district, who both received imprisonment for five and a half years.

The defendants were among those who had been incited by hostile and reactionary forces in the United States to organise illegal migrations of local ethnic minority people. (VNA)

Vietnam separatists given big jail terms

■ HANOI

FOUR members of an ethnic minority group were sentenced to up to 13 years in jail for organising anti-Government protests in Vietnam's Central Highlands, a court official said yesterday.

The defendants were convicted after a trial on Thursday for "undermining the state policy of national unity and causing security disturbances in February 2001".

They had been demanding a separate state for ethnic minorities collectively called Montagnards.

Y Kuo Bya, 48, was jailed for 13 years, Y He Eban, 57, for 12 years, Y Jon B Nuoi, 27, for 11 years and Y Bui E Nuoi for 10 years.

All four also were given up to four years probation. They have 15 days to appeal.

The four belong to the Ede ethnic minority group and were among those who led protests in 2001 before going into hiding.

APPEAL OF THE MONTAGNARD FOUNDATION AND FROM THE DEGAR MONTAGNARD
PEOPLE IN VIETNAM'S CENTRAL HIGHLANDS TO THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY:
OVER 316 PRISONERS OF CONSCIENCE SHOULD BE IMMEDIATELY RELEASED

The Montagnard Foundation and the indigenous Degar Montagnard People makes this appeal to the international community in order to peacefully resolve the human rights situation facing the Montagnard in Vietnam's Central Highlands. The Montagnard Foundation calls on the United States, the European Commission, the United Nations and Vietnam's donor nations to pressure Vietnam to:

1. OPEN THE CENTRAL HIGHLANDS TO INTERNATIONAL MONITORS

Since Vietnam and the United States are currently engaged in trade agreements and discussing strategic partnerships for defense, there is now no reason for the Vietnamese government to view the Degar Montagnard people as an enemy because of Montagnard support to the US Armed Forces during the Vietnam War.

2. WITHDRAW ITS TROOPS FROM THE CENTRAL HIGHLANDS

Since Cambodia and Laos are allies of Vietnam and all the Degar Montagnard refugees in Cambodia have been forcibly repatriated, there is no longer any reason for the Vietnamese military to continue to occupy the Central Highlands. Currently the Vietnamese government views the ethnic Degar Montagnard people as their worse enemy. We request that the soldiers and Cong An security forces desist in security operations and withdraw their soldiers from the Central Highlands. The Degar Montagnard people only desire to be treated as equal citizens in Vietnam.

3. RELEASE ALL DEGAR MONTAGNARD PRISONERS OF CONSCIENCE

Since the Vietnamese government claims it does not harm the Degar Montagnard refugees who have been forcibly repatriated to Vietnam from Cambodia, there is no longer any reason for Vietnam to keep other Degar Montagnard people in prison. We request the government of Vietnam release all Degar Montagnard prisoners who have been arrested and imprisoned since the Montagnard peaceful demonstration of 2001.

All of the indigenous Degar Montagnard prisoners who are listed below have been tortured and imprisoned not because they are terrorists or wanted to overthrow the government of Vietnam or wanted an independent state but simply because they dared to stand up and ask for the respect of their basic human rights, indigenous land rights and religious freedom. We humbly ask all of Vietnam's donors to not empower Vietnam with aid money unless the persecution against the Montagnards ceases.
